

UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA

National Radon Poster Contest

Introduction

Radon is a colorless, odorless, and tasteless gas that is produced naturally from the decay of uranium and thorium in the earth's crust. It is the second leading cause of lung cancer after smoking. The only way to protect yourself from radon is to test your home for radon and, if necessary, take steps to reduce the radon level in your home.

FOR MORE INFORMATION

