

ROLE OF TEEN LEADERS AT 4-H CAMP

Note: These best practices were written with Rock Eagle in mind, but offer good suggestions for working with teen leaders at camp at all 4-H Centers.

You are responsible to your County Agent regarding your role as an activities. The role of a Teen Leader is that of a friend, guide, helper and leader to the 4-

Go with the campers to the orientation meeting on Monday afternoon. This meeting is very important because th grounds and buildings.

Help to keep the campers orderly. In order to keep confusion down to a minimum, it is necessary for the Teen Leaders to always be around when an activity is going on. Whether it be walking to a scheduled meeting or just keeping order during milk cottage time.

- < If you see a camper that is lost, help him find his way around the camp.
- < Attend the meeting for agents and leaders after supper each night. Ask any questions about the week at camp.
