

New Extension Master Gardener Program Coordinator Fact sheet

Welcome to the national network of the Extension Master Gardener (EMG) Program Coordinators! The resources and tools below will help you succeed in your new position. For to contact your regional representative for more information, <https://mastergardener.extension.org/>.

- EMG Coordinator Resources website is a compilation of resources that have been created and reviewed by your colleagues, and that are intended to support your efforts in EMG volunteer management and administration. It includes the national mission statement and program standards, resources on program planning, conflict management, diversity and inclusion, social media management training and more. As a Coordinator, you can also add to these resources with materials that you find useful in managing your EMG program.
- Journal of Extension is an open access, peer-reviewed journal that brings the scholarship of university outreach and engagement to educators and practitioners around the world.
